

PE - Bounce - This topic allows us to learn more about being physically active and how things move. We will be learning about the history of sports people, different ways to exercise and all about forces and how they work. This is a cross-curricular topic, so there are many opportunities to learn across a range of areas, including art, English, maths, music and more. In addition to this we will also be working on RE by looking at the religion Buddhism.

