

SCIENCE Predators— This topic focuses on developing the children’s understanding of predatory creatures. It also allows us to look at habitats and nutrition. This is a cross-curricular topics, so we will have the opportunity to develop a vast range of skills including art and geography, as well as conducting our own experiments, including dissecting owl pellets!

