

Geography - Land Ahoy - This topic will give us the opportunity to learn about maps and the location of different places and islands around the world. We will be able to extend this by giving directions. We will look at the history of some famous pirates and use pirate objects, artifacts and images to do some observational drawings. This topic is cross curricular so we will be learning across all subject areas including computing, D&T, music and science.

